

DEPARTMENT OF
ENVIRONMENT &
CONSERVATION

KNOXVILLE ENVIRONMENTAL FIELD OFFICE

3711 Middlebrook Pike - Phone: (865) 594-6035

Directions to Knoxville Environmental Field Office:

From the north, stay on I-75 South, take I-275 South to I-40 West. Take Exit 386b (Highway 129, Alcoa-Airport). Get in the right lane on the exit ramp. This will dead-end at Middlebrook Pike. Turn right onto Middlebrook Pike - go about 1¼ miles, we are located in the brown brick building on the right next to the Big Oak Apartments.

From the west, take the 24th street exit. At the STOP sign turn right at the next stop sign you are at Middlebrook Pike, turn right - go about 1¼ miles, we are located in the brown brick building on the right next to the Big Oak Apartments.

From the east, on I-40 West, take exit 386b (Alcoa-Airport) get in the right lane on the exit ramp. This will dead-end at Middlebrook Pike. Turn right onto Middlebrook Pike - go about 1¼ miles, we are located in the brown brick building on the right next to the Big Oak Apartments.

From the south, on 129 North, take the 17th Street Exit, turn left at stop sign. Proceed on to the second light and turn left. You will go through one more light and cross two sets of railroad tracks.

At that point – go about 1¼ miles, we are located in the brown brick building on the right next to the Big Oak Apartments.

The following Divisions have staff at the Knoxville Environmental Field Office:

- Air Pollution Control
- Ground Water Protection
- Information Systems
- Natural Heritage
- Office of Environmental Assistance
- Radiological Health
- Solid/Hazardous Waste Management
- Superfund
- Underground Storage Tanks
- Water Pollution Control
- Water Supply